BAG OF GOLD.

Offered For Stocks.

Placed $40,000 Before the Cole Brothers

And Asked Them to Make the Transfer.

They Refused and an Action Was Commenced.

Young Woman Insane—Entries—Court News.

A bag containing more than $40,000 in gold was placed before Dr. A. M. and H. W. Cole Thursday.

It was offered to them by John W.
Miller as payment for 288 shares of stock in the Sta. Drilling Machine Co. of this city. The Coles refuse to transfer the stock for the coin.

Mr. Miller is general superintendent of the company. Dr. A. M. Cole and his brother are stockholders, H.
W. Cole being secretary and treasurer.
It is claimed that differences of opinion have arisen between the parties named, in reference to business affairs, which make it unpleasant for them to hold official positions in the same company.

The refusal of Dr. and H. W. Cole to accept Mr. Miller's offer, was followed by a law suit suit being filed in Common Pleas court.

Judge Anderson issued a temporary injunction restraining A.
M. Cole, H. W. Cole and the Star Drilling Machine Co. from selling or transferring any of the stock of the corporation. The petition asking for the injunction was filed by John W. Miller. He alleges that A. M. Cole and H. W. Cole agreed to sell him 288 shares of the stock of the Star Drilling Machine Co. for $140 per share, an aggregate of $40,320. Later, he alleges, they refused to live up to the contract. He asks the court to issue an order requiring the defendants, A. M. and H. W. Cole to sell him the stock.

Adjudged Insane.
Rosie Blum was adjudged insane in Probate court Friday. She will be taken to the asylum at Newburg.
The unfortunate girl is 20 years of age and was formerly employed at the Cereal mills. When 16 years of age she was vaccinated. This is believed to have brought on her present trouble.

SPIES

And Intimidation

Cannot Bring Back the German Sons.

Editor Seybold Pours
Home Hot Shot

Into the "Republican Menagerie" at Columbus.

He Is Independent, and Mr. Hanna Will Find It Out.

Commenting upon the Beacon's charge that Editor Seybold had called at McLean headquarters at Columbus upon other than purely social business, the Germania says:
"Editor Seybold, whose articles have appeared in the English papers quite frequently of late, was in Columbus last Monday to pay a visit to several of his friends.
"The Beacon Journal took advantage of this private affair and manufactured an important political article out of it.
"In a long Columbus dispatch the Beacon was informed that the 'prominent figure of Editor Seybold was seen in the Capital City, who undoubtedly was brought here on a mysterious political mission. He called at state Democratic headquarters, but did not make a visit at Republican headquarters and as far as known did not have a conference with McLean, but with Lew Bernard one of McLean's managers,' etc.
"We hope that it is sufficient proof to our readers when we state that we neither saw McLean or Bernard or any other noted politician as was the low insinuation of the Beacon. The object of the whole visit was of an entirely private nature and concerned no one. But suppose we had visited the Democratic headquarters and spoken to McLean and other politicians? The Germania is an independent paper and has no debts, and its editor is an independent man who, up to the present time, has never violated the law politically or otherwise and does not need to be ashamed to meet any one at any place. He goes and comes as he pleases and if it should happen that we go to Columbus again next week we certainly will call at Democratic headquarters and upon McLean and all the principal politicians, simply to show that the howling of the managers at Republican headquarters does not irritate us.
"And if we have time enough we will call at the monkey cage and upon the lion tamer at Republican headquarters and try and console those who were so badly excited over our last visit to Columbus.
"Certainly we cannot rub them down with Expansion Bain nor give them Imperialistic Pills because we don't believe in that kind of patient medicine.
"The systematic and persistent care with which the movements of the German editors are watched, shows that the Republicans do not enjoy the situation, and are afraid of the German-American voters.
"If the lights of the Republican State committee believe that they can get back a single one of their lost German sons by setting spies upon them, or by intimidation or threats, they are badly mistaken."

Hurrahed For Wrong Crowd.

The Akron Germania says:
"The Eighth Ohio, 'The President's Own,' must stay at home from the Dewey exercises. It was good enough to hurrah for Hanna, Mc-Kinley and Dick. And after all their apparent love and liberality for the boys the political aggregation, together with their fat Hanna, have no money left to give the boys a little pleasure. Here Bushnell showed himself to be an entirely different fellow and McLean will make many a vote by his liberality."

TWO MORTGAGES

Only Claims Against Schumacher Estate.

Property Appraised at $400,000 Will Soon be Sold at Marseilles.

J. A. Arbogast, accompanied by his wife and two children, arrived in Akron from Chicago Thursday night. They will remain in the city until Sunday evening and are stopping at the Windsor hotel.

Mr. Arbogast and family returned recently from a tour through Europe. They sailed from New York July 1, and set sail from Southampton on the homeward journey Sept.
6, arriving in New York on the 14th.
From there they went to Chicago where they will make their home until next spring. Then they will return to Akron.

One of the assignees of the estate of Ferdinand Schumacher, Mr. Arbogast said Friday to a reporter for the DEMOCRAT that besides paying every cent of the indebtedness the estate would still have a large sum of money left over. All but two of the mortgages have been paid.

In a short time the property at Marseilles, Ill., will be sold. It is estimated by the assignees that this proper will bring about $400,000.
After the sale of this property, all claims against the estate will be satisfied at once.

Don't fail to visit our new Shoe Department for Men, Boys and Children; open Saturday, Sept. 30,

BIG GAME.

Deer Shot By A. J. Bien—Fishing and Hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Bien and son, Jay, returned home Friday morning from Alpena, Mich., where they enjoyed a ten-days' visit with friends. The greater part of the time, Mr. Bien spent hunting and fishing with a party of friends. His brother, A. J. Bien, of Pittsburg, was the only one of the party who got big game. He shot a deer. Sixty quail were secured and a large number of fish. Mrs. Charles Bien was the most successful of all in fishing. She caught a seven-pound bass.
